Rallies of Scouts and Scouters during his visits to the several States and Provinces. In Madras a Rally and an Exhibition are arranged especially for His Excellency and Mysore, being the leading Indian State in Scout matters and possessing the largest number of Scouts comparatively in any State or Province in India, should, it is thought, arrange for a Rally in connection with His Excellency's visit. The Scouters' Conference at Byaderahalli has passed a similar resolution expressing its opinion in favour of such a Rally and I therefore request you to place the matter before Government and obtain their favourable orders thereon, so that it may be included as one of the items during His Excellency's visit. The expenses of the Rally is estimated not to exceed
